Order

It has come into the notice of College administration that students are misusing the smart phones in the college campus by spending their precious time on social media and clicking selfies which spoils its positive use. Therefore in this regard students are warned to refrain from such activities in the college campus and to maintain discipline in all respects. Moreover students are directed to switch off their mobile phones while entering the college campus and can switch on only after leaving the college. Any student found violating the order will be responsible for consequences.
